When you have completed your concept chart, review the resources you see and consider the following questions:

- What types of resources do you tend to use?
- What influences your choice of resources?
- Why have some resources been more successful than others?
- What resources from the video would you add to your list?

© 2003 WGBH Educational Foundation.