After you have assessed the student letters, think about the questions below.

1. What did you learn from assessing the letters?

2. What advice would you give each student for next steps?